

CURRICULUM VITAE

Thomas E. Watts, M.D.

Personal:

Born: November 11, 1944, Venice Florida.

Married;

wife Nancy

son Alex

daughter Casey.

Education:

Floydada High School, Graduate, June, 1963, Floydada, Texas

University of Texas at Austin, B.S. in Chemical Engineering, January, 1968

Baylor University College of Medicine, M.D., June, 1972

Rotating Internship, Baylor Affiliated Hospitals, 1972-73

Family Practice Residency, University of Minnesota, 1973-75

M.D. Licensure:

Texas, 1972 - present

Minnesota, 1974 - 1999

American Board of Family Practice

Certified: 1975

Recertified: 1981, 1988, 1994, 2001

Professional Activities:

Chief Resident, Fairview/St. Mary's Family Practice Program, 1974

Medical Practice:

Blue Earth, MN 1975-96

Kelsey Seybold Clinic, Houston, TX 1996 - present

Univ. of Minnesota Rural Physician Associate Program Preceptor 1980-96

Univ. of Minnesota Dept. of Family Practice & Community Health:

Asst. Clinical Professor 1980-96

Societies:

Tau Beta Pi Engineering Honor Society, 1967 (Vice President)

Blue Earth Medical Society (President 1977-78)

Speaker:

Pfizer: Relpax
King: "Coach": Altace
Boehringer Ingelheim: Micardis
Astra Zenica: Toprol XL

Publications:

Improved Purification Procedure for Rabbit Muscle Amylo-1,6-glucosidase/
Oligo-1,4--1,4-glucantransferase; Dept. of Biochemistry, Baylor College of Medicine, Houston, Texas 77025; Analytical Biochemistry 49, 479-491 (1972), by T.E. Watts and T. E. Nelson.

The action of the Glycogen Debranching Enzyme System in a Muscle Protein
Particle; Dept. of Biochemistry, Baylor College of Medicine, Houston, Texas
77025; Biochemical and Biophysical Research Communications, Vol. 47, No 1,
1972, by T. E. Nelson, and T. E. Watts.

Drinking Water Contaminants, Minnesota Medicine, Volume 73, February 1990,
By Thomas E. Watts, M.D., and Rexford D. Singer, M. S.

Projects:

1986: Computerized Medical Summary and Medication lists at Blue Earth Medical Center.

1988 Computerized Billing at Blue Earth Medical Center.
(Lytec Medical)

1990: Computerized Laboratory Output at United Hospital.
(Downing Card & FoxPro)

Employment: 1975—1996 --- Blue Earth Medical Center, Blue Earth Minnesota
1996—Present --- Kelsey-Seybold Clinic, The Woodlands, Texas